With regards to Mr. Ali Kalaie, the High Council for Human Rights has approached all pertinent judicial authorities and courts.

According to information received from Tehran's department of justice, Mr. Kalaie was charged with engaging in propaganda against the system of the Islamic Republic of Iran and in favor of the MEK terrorist group. He was also charged with association and collusion to disturb national security. Mr. Kalaie was tried on the above charges in a court of law. On his first charge, Mr. Kalaie was found guilty and sentenced to a one year prison term wholly suspended for two years. However, he was cleared of the second charge and freed.
