The following information has been provided by the High Council for Human Rights of the Judiciary of the I.R. of Iran:

Mr. Arzhang Davoodi was sentenced to execution in the primary court on charge of assembly and collusion against national security through membership in the MKO terrorist group and efficient action to advance the goals of this group.

The issued verdict was appealed by the defendant and his lawyer. The Supreme Court, after reviewing the case, abolished the verdict and has ordered that the case be reconsidered in a court at the same level as the court issuing the first verdict.
