The following information has been provided by the High Council for Human Rights of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

"According to the report received from the pertinent judicial authorities, Ms. Akbari Monfared was sentenced and convicted on the basis of the prevailing laws and regulations, following exhaustion of all domestic remedies and hearing of the defence and her attorney. She received a fair trial and the judgment was issued.

Contrary to the raised claims, she has been under regular medical supervision receiving the needed treatment and she is dispatched to medical centers out of the hospital whenever required."
