Reply concerning Ahmed Mansoor

The Office of the Public Prosecutor concerning cybercrime arrested Ahmed Mansoor on 20 March 2017 on the charge of circulating false and misleading information on the Internet with a view to spreading hatred and sectarianism. He was informed of the charges and placed in pretrial detention in Abu Dhabi Central Prison. He was allowed to appoint a lawyer and his family were allowed to visit him, in accordance with the procedures applicable to detention facilities. The allegations contained in the communication concerning arbitrary detention, lack of information concerning the place of detention, and failure to specify the charges against him are therefore false.
