PERMANENT MISSION OF NEPAL
TO THE UNITED NATIONS
GENEVA

No. G/WGEID/32

The Permanent Mission of Nepal to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), Special Procedures Branch, and has the honour to acknowledge the receipt of its letter dated 27 July 2017 enclosing a joint communication sent by the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances; the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders; the Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment; the Special Rapporteur on the promotion of truth, justice, reparation and guarantees of non-recurrence; and the Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences. The Permanent Mission has the honour to inform that the joint communication through which the Special Procedures has brought into attention their concerns related to the transitional justice matters in Nepal has been duly communicated to Kathmandu for consideration and response of the relevant authorities of the Government of Nepal. The Permanent Mission of Nepal would like to assure that the Government of Nepal is committed to the issues pertaining to transitional justice, and the response would be duly forwarded to the esteemed OHCHR in time. The Mission would further like to extend thanks to the OHCHR and the Special Procedures for their constructive engagement in an issue which both sides look at with importance.

The Permanent Mission of Nepal to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), Special Procedures Branch, the assurances of its highest consideration.
