Situation of Ms. Narges MOHAMMADI

The following information has been provided by the High Council for Human Rights of the Judiciary of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

According to the Department of Justice of Tehran Province, following exhaustion of the legal procedure and hearing the defense, Ms. Narges Mohammadi was sentenced to one year imprisonment on the charge of propaganda against the State, five years on the charge of assembly and collusion with the aim of acting against State national security, and ten years on the charge of establishing and managing the illegal organization of "Logam". The verdict was reinstated by the Court of Appeal; but later, on the request of the judge of the verdict execution Department and in conformity with Article 134 of the Islamic Penal Code (2013) only the most severe punishment (10 years of imprisonment) was reinstated. She is currently serving her sentence in Evin prison.

It is noteworthy that Ms. Mohammadi was already engaged in another case where she was sentenced to one year imprisonment for propagation against the State and five years imprisonment for assembly and collusion and act against security of the State. On her request, she was transferred to the prison of Zanjan city, on 16 May 2012, to facilitate visits from her family. He received all the regular attention and medical care, similar to any other prisoner, whether within the prison or, if required, from outside. On 6 August 2012, she was granted a leave from the prison, and unfortunately she did not return to the prison. After a long absence, she was arrested on 4 May 2015 and transferred to Evin prison.

According to the information received on the health status of Ms. Mohammadi, she is under regular checking by a specialist physician and if, at any time, required, she shall be dispatched to medical centers out of the prison. She has already been visiting dentists, psychologists and similar physicians out of the prison. Presently, she is in normal good health.

According to prison reports, she meets her father, mother, brother and children on a weekly basis.
