situation of Ms. Maryam AKBARI MONFARED

The following information has been provided by the High Council for Human Rights of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

“According to the report received from the pertinent judicial authorities, Ms. Akbari Monfared was sentenced and convicted with assembly and collusion with the aim of committing crime against security of the country and propaganda activity against the State in favour of the terrorist group of MKO. She was treated on the basis of the prevailing laws and regulations, following exhaustion of all domestic remedies and hearing of the defence and her attorney. She received a fair trial.

Contrary to the raised claims, she has been under regular medical supervision receiving the needed treatment and she is dispatched to medical centers out of the hospital whenever required.”
