Situation of Ms. Marjan DAVARI

The further information has been provided by the High Council for Human Rights of the Judiciary of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

"According to the further information received from the Judicial authorities, The death penalty's verdict of Ms. Davari (who was charged with being the main accomplice in establishing and running a corruption and prostitution center, accomplice in preparation of corrupt obscene video and visual materials in bulk, unauthorized interference in medical affairs through counseling and prescribing medicines and instruction for treatments in the form of an intrinsic advisory group, the use of psychoactive substances and fraud) is nullified.

The case is referred to a parallel court for further consideration on the date 2018/01/31. Meanwhile, as previously stated, she enjoyed the presence of attorneys at all stages of the trial and in terms of health, measures have been taken after the announcement of the prison for the necessity of transferring her to health centers outside the detention center. On request, she meets with her relatives and has access to all facilities of the prison. In case of issuing the final verdict, that will be announced.
