APPLICATION
on holding a peaceful assembly on "March of the 8th March"

We, women of Kazakhstan, feminists, lesbians, bisexuals and queer women of the Kazakhstan feminist initiative “Feminita” on the basis of the right granted by Article 32 of the Constitution of the RK and in accordance with the Law of the RK “On the organisation and conduct of peaceful meetings, rallies, marches, pickets and demonstrations in the Republic of Kazakhstan” dated March 17, 1995 No. 2126, with Article 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, adopted by the resolution 2200A (XXI) of the UN General Assembly of December 16, 1966, as well as the Decision No. 01-02/ KT-C-12 Management Social Development of Almaty, dated April 26, 2019 inform you of our intention to hold a peaceful public event.

The objectives of the event: on Women's Night to celebrate the 8th of March in accordance with its historically embedded meaning, aimed at achieving equal rights and opportunities for women in society, as well as strengthening their political and civic position, desires and aspirations. In independent Kazakhstan, we follow the instructions of one of the first Kazakh women journalists, pedagogues and feminists Nazipa Kulzhanova, who in 1923 in the newspaper “Kyzyl Kazakhstan” the issue No 15, bequeathed: “Every year on the 8th of March, women who strive for equality around the world and count on equality, considering the scarifies they have taken already on their way to equality and, reminding themselves of the needs that they want to achieve in the upcoming year, they must strive with great strength for a great goal”.

I want to tell to every Kazakh woman to consider that the 8th of March is our day, our holiday. Women of the entire Kazakh people - elders and younger, sons and daughters, united with all their will, not relying on the slogan that we are on the path of learning, should be more courageous. If we adhere to this, then I believe, that we will achieve true freedom and true equality of mankind.

According to clause 2.2 of the Main principles and approaches in the formation of gender policy of the Concept of family and gender policy of the Republic of Kazakhstan until 2030, approved by the President of the RK Nursultan Nazarbayev, dated December 6, 2016 No. 384 (hereinafter referred to as the “Concept”) “Modern state policy of Kazakhstan, aimed at achieving equality of women and men in society, is aimed to overcome all forms and manifestations of discrimination on the basis of sex, creating political background and the necessary social conditions for the fullest realisation of women's abilities and men in all areas of employment, public and private life”.

Joining Nazipa Kulzhanova’s statements and the provisions of the Concept, we thus express our solidarity and readiness to implement and support a gender programme in Kazakhstan, the importance of which is constantly emphasized by the head of our country, Nursultan Nazarbayev.

on holding a peaceful assembly

We, women of Kazakhstan, feminists, lesbians, bisexuals and queer women of the Kazakhstan feminist initiative “Feminita” on the basis of the right granted by Article 32 of the Constitution of the RK and in accordance with the Law of the RK “On the organisation and conduct of peaceful meetings, rallies, marches, pickets and demonstrations in the Republic of Kazakhstan” dated March 17, 1995 No. 2126, with Article 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, adopted by the resolution 2200A (XXI) of the UN General Assembly of December 16, 1966, as well as the Decision No. 01-02/ЖТ-С-12 Management Social Development of Almaty, dated April 26, 2019 inform you of our intention to hold a peaceful public event.

The objectives of the event: to hold a peaceful procession, considering the diversity of women and their circumstances, aimed at achieving equal rights and opportunities for women in society, as well as strengthening their political and civic position, desires and aspirations. In independent Kazakhstan, we follow the instructions of one of the first Kazakh women journalists, pedagogues and feminists Nazipa Kulzhanova, who in 1923 in the newspaper “Kyzyl Kazakhstan” the issue No 15, bequeathed: “Every year on the 8th of March, women who strive for equality around the world and count on equality, considering the sacrifices they have taken already on their way to equality and, reminding themselves of the needs that they want to achieve in the upcoming year, they must strive with great strength for a great goal”.

I want to tell to every Kazakh woman to consider that the 8th of March is our day, our holiday. Women of the entire Kazakh people - elders and younger, sons and daughters, united with all their will, not relying on the slogan that we are on the path of learning, should be more courageous. If we adhere to this, then I believe, that we will achieve true freedom and true equality of mankind.

According to clause 2.2 of the Main principles and approaches in the formation of gender policy of the Concept of family and gender policy of the Republic of Kazakhstan until 2030, approved by the President of the RK Nursultan Nazarbayev, dated December 6, 2016 No. 384 (hereinafter referred to as the “Concept”) “Modern state policy of Kazakhstan, aimed at achieving equality of women and men in society, is aimed to overcome all forms and manifestations of discrimination on the basis of sex, creating political background and the necessary social conditions for the fullest realisation of women's abilities and men in all areas of employment, public and private life”.

Joining Nazipa Kulzhanova’s statements and the provisions of the Concept, we thus express our solidarity and readiness to implement and support a gender programme in Kazakhstan, the importance of which is constantly emphasized by the head of our country, Nursultan Nazarbayev.
