

ANNEX 3

Acts of Vandalism Committed after the Ceasefire Statement

Vandalizing the Statue of Vazgen Sargsyan in Shushi

Before

After

Vandalizing Cultural monuments in Talish

Attacks on the Holy Savior Ghazanchetsots Cathedral of Shushi

Acts of vandalism committed against the Holy Savior Ghazanchetsots Cathedral of Shushi after the Ceasefire Statement

Tigranakert

One of the sites being excavated at Tigranakert

Damage to the archaeological camp of Tigranakert by a targeted Azerbaijani strike

Vandalizing the Kanach Jam (Green Church) Cathedral of Shushi

Before

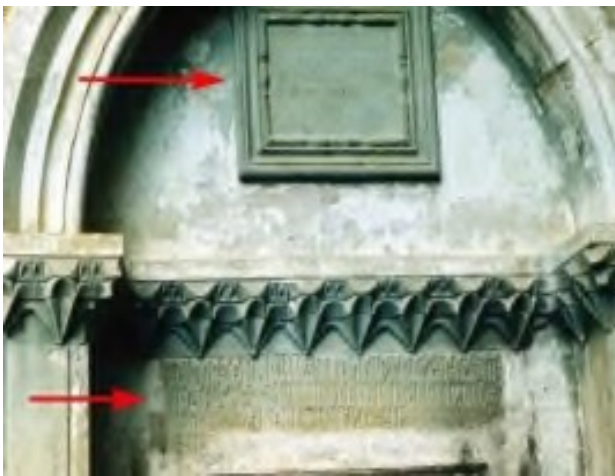

After

The list of state museums currently under the military control of Azerbaijan

1. State Archaeological Museum of Kashatagh
2. Hadrut Local Lore Museum After Arthur Mkrtchyan
3. Mets Tagher Museum after A. Khanperyants
4. Tumi Museum after Tevan Stepanyan
5. Shushi Museum of History
6. State Museum of Geology after Professor G. Gabrielyants
7. State Museum of Fine Arts
8. Shushi Art Gallery

The erasure of Armenian inscriptions from the church of Nij

The destruction of the Armenian cultural heritage in Nakhijevan

The Map of the Armenian Cultural heritage of Nakhijevan

ARGAM AYVAZIAN DIGITAL ARCHIVE (Courtesy Image)

The Armenian cemetery of Old Jugha circa 1915

ARGAM AYVAZIAN DIGITAL ARCHIVE (Courtesy Image)

The destruction of the Armenian cemetery of Old Jugha in 2005

The destruction of the Armenian churches in Nakhijevan

St. Surb Karapet (Holy Precursor Church) in Abrakunis, a major center of medieval Armenian theology (Argam Ayvazyan archives, 1970-1981)

A mosque, opened in 2013, on the site of medieval Surb Karapet in Abrakunis (courtesy Djulfa virtual memorial and museum |djulfa.com)