The Permanent Mission of Austria to the United Nations Office in Geneva presents its compliments to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and following the communication no. AL AUT 1/2022 dated 1 February 2022 has the honour to inform that the joint communication was well received by the competent authorities in Vienna.

The Austrian government is committed to providing a response to the joint communication as soon as possible. However, some additional time in providing an answer to the questions contained in the document is required, in order to ensure a comprehensive and consolidated response to the communication. The Permanent Mission will transmit the response in due time once it is received.

The Permanent Mission of Austria to the United Nations Office in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.
