

(Translated from Russian)

Permanent Mission of the Russian Federation to the United Nations Office and Other International Organizations in Geneva

No. 3760

The Permanent Mission of the Russian Federation to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and has the honour to provide information from the Russian Federation in response to joint enquiry AL RUS 10/2022, of 30 August 2022, from the special procedure mandate holders of the United Nations Human Rights Council.

The Permanent Mission takes this opportunity to convey to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.

Enclosure: as mentioned above, 1 page

Geneva, 9 September 2022

Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights
Geneva

Information from the Russian Federation in response to the joint enquiry of the United Nations Human Rights Council special procedures concerning Irina Borisovna Danilovich

Reference: AL RUS 10/2022 of 30 August 2022

The Russian Federation, having studied the above joint enquiry, would like to draw attention to the fact that information on the merits of the situation of I. B. Danilovich was forwarded in a timely manner to the United Nations Human Rights Council special procedures in response to request G/SO 217/1 Russian Federation of 9 May 2022, by note No. 2780 of 1 July 2022 from the Permanent Mission of the Russian Federation to the United Nations Office and Other International Organizations in Geneva.

The case of I. B. Danilovich remains the subject of verifications and legal proceedings under the domestic law of the Russian Federation.

The Constitution (article 120) and the legislation on the judicial system of the Russian Federation prohibit any non-procedural influencing of the judiciary.
