Dear [REDACTED]

Dundee Precious Metals Inc. ("DPM"), based in Toronto, Ontario, Canada presents its compliments to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and has the honour to acknowledge receipt of the joint communication AL OTH 52/2025, dated 11 June 2025.

The Company recognizes the importance of human rights special procedures, and attributes great importance to addressing individual communications. The Company apologizes for its delay in responding and is committed to providing responses to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in a timely manner, in line with our commitment to transparent and open communications with our stakeholders.

We confirm that DPM is currently working to assess the communication received and to prepare a response. DPM avails itself of the opportunity to renew to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.

Very truly yours,

[REDACTED]
David Rae
Chief Executive Officer
