Dear [REDACTED]

JOINT LETTER FROM THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS ON THE SITUATION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDERS

The Ministry of Police of the Republic of South Africa acknowledges receipt of the joint communication from the Special Procedures of the United Nations Human Rights Council concerning the situation of [REDACTED] a human rights defender [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

The matter was referred to the South African Police Service (SAPS) for urgent attention and verification. Following an investigation by the Provincial Commissioner [REDACTED] the National Commissioner of SAPS has reported the following:

There is currently no concrete evidence indicating that [REDACTED] life is under threat, nor that any contract has been taken out against [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was telephonically interviewed and confirmed that [REDACTED] has not opened any criminal cases relating to threats allegedly linked to [REDACTED] advocacy against proposed mining operations in the area. However, [REDACTED] did acknowledge that the situation remains tense due to opposition by certain community members to the opening of the mine.

SAPS [REDACTED] remains actively aware of and engaged in the matter. The police are monitoring the situation and continue to respond to any complaints or incidents reported, in line with their constitutional mandate to ensure safety and security for all.

JOINT LETTER FROM THE SPECIAL RAPORTEURS ON THE SITUATION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDERS

The South African Police Service remains committed to upholding the rights and safety of all human rights defenders, in accordance with both domestic law and international human rights obligations.

Should further relevant developments arise, this Ministry will continue to engage and report accordingly.

Yours sincerely,

MINISTER OF POLICE
MR F CACHALIA
